

Quarterly Operations Review

Prepared by the platform engineering group.

This report summarizes system availability, incident response times and capacity planning for the second quarter. Availability stayed above the 99.99 percent target throughout the period.

Incident response improved after the on-call schedule was expanded to five engineers.

Next quarter will focus on cross-region failover exercises.